

Front Range Baptist Missions

Thank you for your interest in submitting to The Front Range Quarterly, a Baptist publication of Front Range Baptist Missions. This journal is distributed in the Denver area four times a year.

What We Accept for The Front Range Quarterly

We accept poetry, nonfiction, and personal testimonies of how Jesus Christ has worked in your life. All works must be geared toward lifting up the name of Jesus Christ, and all work must be original. All scripture must be from the King James Version of the Bible. All borrowed information, aside from scriptures, must be documented with endnotes. (Endnotes provide the author, title, and publication information. We use the Chicago Manual of Style. If you need help with documentation, simply contact us.)

Nonfiction works should range from 1,250 to 2,500 words, though that is just a suggested range. We prefer pieces that force Christians to think about their faith, grow in the knowledge of their faith, and be able to defend their faith. If you're unsure about your idea, don't hesitate to contact us. However, we will not accept advice columns, book/movie reviews, cartoons, or political pieces (endorsements or criticisms) of any kind.

Required Submission Information

Send us your typed submission as an attachment to frbmissions@gmail.com. (Be sure to upload your submission as a Word, Pages, or PDF file.) Provide us with the following information:

- your name,
- your phone number,
- your mailing address (we will send you a free copy of the journal that features your work),
- the church you are a member of (include the city and state it is located in), and
- the best way to contact you.

We look forward to reading your submission and will respond as promptly as we can.

In Christ,
Front Range Baptist Missions
